INTRODUCTION

Troop 570, chartered by Holy Spirit Lutheran Church in 1969 for the boys, is one of the largest BSA scouting units on the Eastside. On February 1, 2019, Troop 570 formed a girl's scouting unit, one of the first in the Lake Shores District of Chief Seattle Council! We have around 85 scouts in the boy and girl troops from different public and private schools in the area, and as far as Bothell and Issaquah. Holy Spirit Lutheran Church also hosts Cub Scout Pack 567.

Troop 570 is a youth-led Troop, led by the Patrol Leader Council, with adult oversight by their own Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmasters. Activities, operations and procedures of Scouting are decided and executed by the Scouts with the Scoutmasters' support and guidance.

The Committee runs the administration. The Committee Chair oversees the Committee, runs the Parent Meeting and reports to the Chartered Organization Representative. These meetings are used for getting information to parents, conducting Troop business, getting ideas and providing a venue to voice concerns and debate issues. All parents should attend and provide input. As linked troops, the Committee oversees both the boy and girl unit.

TROOP BASICS

Troop Organization

The troop is comprised of three groups:

- o Scouts organized into permanent patrols and the New Scouts Patrol
- Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmasters provide support and guidance to Scouts
- o Troop Committee lead by the Committee Chair, this group oversees the operational side of the troop. Positions include:
  - Treasurer, Secretary, Membership Chair, Advancement Chair, Training Coordinator, Chartered Organization Rep, Committee Member at large

Webelos can start attending meetings the Monday after their Arrow of Light Crossover Ceremony (check meeting schedule). Uniform is not necessary the first few meetings. As soon as registration paperwork and dues are turned in, a Troop Kit account will be created for the scout and their parent(s). Parents should refer to the First 30-day Checklist.

Outings/events - The Adult Leader along with the Youth Leader will notify attendees of a cancellation or postponement.

Uniform & Scout Handbook

Uniform - Troop 570 scouts wear the official Scout BSA uniform at troop meetings and outings unless otherwise specified. The uniform gives a Scout visibility and creates a level of identity within the troop and the community. The uniform is used to promote equality while showing individual achievement.

- o Troop provides:
  - Official troop neckerchief, woggle, green shoulder loops and "570" unit patch.
- o Scout to purchase at Scout Shop:
  - Official BSA tan uniform shirt, green socks, belt, World Crest and Chief Seattle Council shoulder patch.
  - BSA green pants (other plain olive-green pants are acceptable)
  - Merit Badge sash once the scout starts earning merit badges.
  - Tip: Buy the shirt and sash one-size bigger as scouts grow up fast.
- o Scout will be assigned a permanent patrol after summer camp and receive a patrol patch.
- Replacement neckerchief, woggle and troop/patrol patch can be purchased from the troop.
  - Neckerchief $10
  - □ Woggle $1
  - Troop patch $5
  - Patrol patch $5

The troop has gently used uniforms and gear for scouts. Please contact our Gear Exchange & Uniform Coordinator or the Concierge for available sizes.

Merit Badge sashes should be worn during Boards of Review and for all Courts of Honor. Order of the Arrow Sashes should be worn for OA events. Both sashes should not be worn at the same time.

Activity Wear/Class B - Scouting-related activity t-shirts and scout pants, to wear when uniform top is not needed. Families will have an opportunity to order Troop 570's logo t-shirts, sweatshirt, hat and jacket in spring in time for summer camp.

Scout Handbook – Check with Troop Concierge for possible purchase.

- o Put name and unit number on with sharpie marker and take care of it through Eagle rank.
- o Protect it from the elements with a fabric book cover or zip-lock bag.
- o Scout's advancement is recorded on the pages at the back of the handbook.
- Scouts should photocopy all signed advancement pages of their handbook periodically.

Scout Binder - Troop presents a three-ring binder at their first Court of Honor after Summer Camp to store rank cards, merit badge cards, worksheets, leadership materials and copies of advancement pages from the Scout Handbook.

RANK ADVANCEMENT

As with all worthy journeys, a clearly defined path makes the trip much easier. Not all travelers on their journey move at the same pace, and a scout will soon enough identify their objectives in Scouting. There are no requirements about having to move to the next rank but moving through those ranks will broaden their adventure and learning. The goal of Scouts BSA is that all scouts get to First Class.

Rank is a method of keeping track of what a Scout has learned. The ranks are:

- o Scout Entry into scouting
  - Parent reviews the pamphlet "How to Protect your Children from Child Abuse" with their scout and initials the requirement in the handbook.
  - Watch Personal safety videos with your scout and discuss
- o Tenderfoot, Second Class & First Class knowledge based
- o Star, Life & Eagle Based on time, leadership and community service.

1. How to get requirements signed off through First Class

From Scout to First Class rank, scouts may work on requirements for more than one rank at a time. As the scout completes requirements for rank, they should get their book signed by a First Class or above scout from within the troop. This can happen on outings or at troop meetings. The pair might discuss what they learned and may ask for a demonstration if appropriate. The Scoutmaster signs off on Scout Spirit.

The Scout handbook with all the signatures and dates is a scout's official record of advancement. We recommended making copies of the signed advancement pages and store them separately from the handbook (ex. in the scout binder).

2. Scoutmaster Conference

Once all the requirements are completed for a rank, a scout schedules a Scoutmaster Conference:

- Scout logs onto their Troop Kit account
- o Under the Advancement tab, pick the day and any available slots for the conference. Time listed is a placeholder and the conference will happen sometime during that troop meeting.
- o Scoutmaster/Asst Scoutmaster will find the scout during the meeting
  - Scout is to wear their uniform and bring their Scout Handbook
- o Scouts can only do one rank at a conference
- o Schedule the Board of Review for the following week (see below)
- Eagle Rank contact the Scoutmaster separately

What happens during the Scoutmaster Conference? It is a time for the scout and the scoutmaster to sit down and talk about the scout's scouting experience. The scoutmaster will ask questions regarding how well the scout has learned the items required for the rank they are completing. The scoutmaster will be assessing the individual needs of the scout, helping to set goals for the next rank, and trying to gauge the success of the Troop program.

3. Board of Review

Once the Scoutmaster Conference is completed a scout may schedule a Board of Review (BOR), also on Troop Kit (A BOR is not needed for Scout Rank):

- Scout logs onto their Troop Kit account
- o Under the Advancement tab, pick the rank they are requesting the BOR for
- o Advancement Chair will schedule a date and confirm the BOR with scout via email
- Scouts can only achieve one rank per BOR

DO NOT schedule a Board of Review the same night as the Scoutmaster Conference for a rank or schedule a Board of Review for two ranks for the same night.

During a Board of Review, the scout presents themselves to three committee members who will ask them questions about their scouting life and the value they gained from passing the requirements. Scouts should be in full uniform for the board.

Once a Board of Review is completed, a scout has officially made that rank and be presented with the rank patch before close of the troop meeting. The Scout can start wearing the new rank patch. (The exception is the Eagle rank, which needs to be signed off by the National Scouting BSA office.) See Eagle Scout Coordinator for details on the Eagle Board of Review.

Earning a Merit Badge

Merit badges are awards that concentrate on a field of expertise or a specific skill and can be earned by scouts in cooperation with a merit badge counselor. The required merit badges can be earned in any order.

Steps to earn merit badges (MB):

- 1. Scout will request a blue card from their Troop Kit account to start a merit badge.
- 2. Scoutmaster/Asst Scoutmaster assures that the scout has met any prerequisites to start the MB.
- 3. If the scout does not have Counselor selected, a Scoutmaster/Asst Scoutmaster can provide the name of a MB Counselor and a blue card.
- 4. Scout fills out a blue card and then the Scoutmaster/Asst Scoutmaster signs the front page.
- 5. Scout contacts the MB Counselor, asking for help working on the badge and sets up a meeting time.
  - o A scout should have a buddy accompanying them when meeting with the counselor.
  - o A buddy can be another scout, a parent or a guardian.
- 6. Scout works on the requirements for the merit badge with the knowledge of the MB Counselor.
- 7. Once completed, MB Counselors will complete their portion and sign the blue card.
- 8. Scout gets the Scoutmaster/Asst Scoutmaster's signature on the Applicant's Record of blue card.
- 9. Scout brings the Application portion of the blue card to a troop meeting and logs it on the Rank Advancement clip board at the Concierge desk.
- 10. Merit Badges are awarded at the next Court of Honor.

**It is very important that the scout checks in with a Merit Badge Counselor as they begin working on a merit badge. In some cases, any work done towards a MB before obtaining a blue card and discussion with the appropriate counselor MAY NOT count towards the requirements and they must start over at the beginning, except for the Camping merit badge. **

Summer Camp Merit Badges

Merit Badges earned at Summer Camp follow a slightly different process.

- 1. Scouts discuss with SMASM which merit badges they want to do at Camp.
- 2. Some camps offer printed blue cards. If they do not, Blue Cards are filled out at a troop meeting prior to camp or at camp.
  - a. Blue Cards are then handed out to scouts at camp and given to the MB Counselor by the scout.
- 3. Blue Cards are retained by the Summer Camp Coordinator once camp is over.
  - a. Completed blue cards are handed directly to the Advancement Chair.
  - b. Partial blue cards are handed back to the Scout at the next Troop meeting. A new blue card may be needed.
- 4. Merit Badges are awarded at the next Court of Honor.

Please give all medications to the Outing Adult Leader at the meet up location. All medications should be in their original containers and placed in a Ziploc bag along with the Outing Medication form (see appendix). Make sure the scout's name is on the outside of the bag. (This helps the Adult Leader administer medication correctly.)

Electronics Policy

Phones, gaming devices and walkie-talkies are not permitted at troop meetings, outings or events, including transportation. This allows the scout to be more engaged in the scouting experience and aids in maintaining youth protection and privacy. Exceptions must be approved by the Adult Outing Leader.

MONEY MATTERS

Family Scout Accounts

Once your Scout's application has been turned in, a Family Scout Account will be created for you. All monetary transactions with the Troop run through this account. This includes:

- o Checks or cash deposited directly by a Scout's family
- Dues collects annually in November for the next year, dues go toward advancement patches, uniform pieces and Scouts' BSA registration fees.
- Outing fees
- o Reimbursements owed to the family for outings, ie. gas money for driving for an event or food

All members of a family are linked to the account and will receive a statement. Contact the Concierge to change the parent email address used for statements. Check drafts are available upon request for any reimbursements owed to a family. Scout Account funds are returned to the family when a scout leaves the Troop.

Outing Fees

Outing fees are listed on Troop Kit under each event page. The week prior to the event, please make sure your scout account has enough to cover the next weeks outing. Outing fees will be deducted from the scout account. All negative balances need to be paid before a scout can go on another outing. If you need additional time, please contact the Committee Chair. Refunds are not permitted after the event closed for signup on Troop Kit, unless specifically stated otherwise.

Fundraising

The Troop requires funds to purchase badges, supplies, equipment and help subsidize activities. The dues collected do not support the troop for the whole year. The Troop raises funds through money-earning activities approved by the Troop Committee.

The troop has one Fundraiser that is consistent from year to year. Additional events will be added as needed. The current fundraiser is:

Christmas Tree Service Project - Every January, the troop gives back to the community by picking up and recycling Christmas trees in the Kirkland area. We ask for a donation in return.
Scouts are required to participate in the event.

Corporate Matching

Some corporations will donate via their Employee Volunteer Hours program. All volunteer time including attending Parent Meetings, sitting on Boards of Review, attend outings and trainings, counts.

For the Benevity corporate matching program, your volunteer hours or direct donations will go toward the Scouting programs account at Holy Spirit Lutheran Church. Funds in the account will be distributed among the three units (Boy Troop 570/Girl Troop 570/Pack 567).

Name: HSLC-Scouting. Unique Identifier: BSV_2KAZ6YHN8K or HSLC SCOUTING VIA HOLY SPIRIT LUTHERAN CHURCH

Others can log their volunteer time for "BSA Chief Seattle Council" through your employer's program. Check the box "Troop 570" for boys and "Troop 8570" for girls as that sends funds to the troops Chief Seattle Council recognizes volunteers who submit matching hours to their employer. When a unit has submitted a combined total of 25 hours, Chief Seattle Council will recognize the unit with $50 in Unit Account Credits.camp card voucher to use toward summer camps and facility rentals in the Council. https://seattlebsa.org/donate/volunteer-hours-program/

SPECIAL NEEDS AND YOUTH PROTECTION

Special Needs in Scouting

The troop has a Special Needs Liaison, to act as a resource for parents of scouts with Special Needs. This parent is available to answer questions and guide new parents to any BSA resources regarding alternative rank requirements, or other necessary accommodations.

An optional for called the Individual Scout Profile or ISP is for parents to share any learning challenges or barriers, which will be shared as appropriate with adult leaders for purposes of Board of Review, Scoutmaster Conferences, outings, and merit badge counseling.

Youth Protection

Because of the great concern Scouts BSA has for the problem of child abuse in our society, all registered r troop leaders are trained in Youth Protection bi-annually, which have been developed to help safeguard both our youth and adult members, including how to avoid it, how to identify it, and how to deal with it.

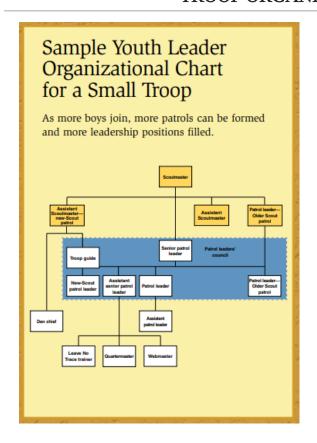

Parents are to review with their Scout the Child Protection Section in the front of the Scout Handbook.

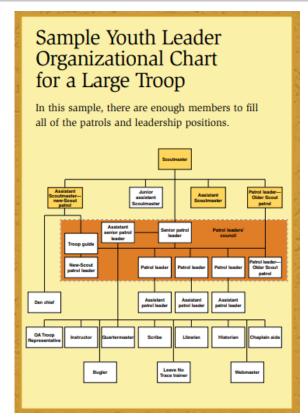

All troop activities will strictly follow the Youth Protection and Safe Scouting guidelines set forth by the Scouts BSA publication The Guide to Safe Scouting. Adult leadership is always two-deep, which means two leaders must always be with Scouts. One must be female in the case of female scouts. No Scout should ever be in the company of an adult without being in sight of others, or without having another adult or Scout in attendance. Email correspondences will be cc'd either the parent of the scout or another adult leader. Other policies as spelled out in the Youth Protection and Guide to Safe Scouting guidelines may apply.

All parents are encouraged to take the BSA Youth Protection Training. Learn more about it by visiting www.scouting.org/YouthProtection.

Abuse, harassment, and hazing of any form have no place in Troop 570 or any part of Scouting.

APPENDIX C ROADMAP FOR NEW SCOUTS

Welcome New Scout & Parents! This section is to help you understand how you can get the most out of your first year in Troop 570.

It is strongly suggested that Scout and parents look through the Scout Handbook and read the requirements of each rank in the back of the book; it's only a page or two for each. Since you may be new to Scouting, please pay close attention to the first four ranks. They are the earliest ranks and easiest to achieve, but not all the requirements are offered all the time. Rank advancement is the responsibility of the Scout. Parents can assist their Scout on the physical fitness requirements for Tenderfoot through First Class.

At the start, Scouts will join a New Scouts Patrol. This Patrol is guided by Troop Guides that are older scouts picked by the Scoutmaster. In this New Scout Patrol, the new scout will get the opportunity to learn skills and get familiar with the ways of the Troop.

A scout should first contact their Troop Guide or Patrol Leader for guidance in any questions they or their parents might have. Other older scouts, Senior Patrol Leader and Scoutmasters are also there to help. This is a very important part of building self-confidence and teamwork!

1. What are weekly Troop Meetings?

- o A meeting consists of various segments which are run by Scouts including opening ceremony, patrol program, guest speakers, skills instructions, inter-patrol activity and closing.
- Meeting program involves hands-on scout skills and advancement activities.
- o Meetings balance between skills learning and games can be noisy and chaotic at times.
- Scouts to bring handbook for advancement sign-off opportunities with older scouts.
- Troop information is distributed at the meetings. 0
- Campout planning happens before or after the troop meeting. Plan for 30 minutes.
- Scoutmaster Conferences, Boards of Review (BOR) may also take place.

2. Campouts & Outings

We camp approximately once a month. Scouts should listen at troop meetings about upcoming events and check Troop Kit regularly. Troop Kit also lists details for campouts and day trips. The outing youth and adult leader, uniform if required, gear, meals, cost and other information pertaining to the event is included. Scouts and parents can sign up for outings on Troop Kit.

Going on outings and campouts is the heart and fun of Scouting with Troop 570! We find that Scouts who actively go on outings stay in scouting and find ease in advancement progress.

Outing Planning Meeting - Campout leaders usually hold one right before or after troop meetings the Monday before camp, to assign patrols and tent mates, plan menus and patrol gear. It's a scout's responsibility to contact the outing youth leader for patrol assignment and duties if they missed the planning meeting. For Friday evening departures, scouts should eat dinner before arriving at P&R or bring a sack dinner to eat in the car. Daypacks should be with the scout during travel; do not store it in the gear vehicle.

Transportation - Unless noted on Troop Kit, the troop gathers at the Kingsgate Park & Ride to carpool in private vehicles to events and outings. Parents are responsible to drop scouts off at the P&R by designated time and wait until scouts are checked in with the youth leader before leaving.

- Depart Time the time scouts and drivers gather at designated meeting place.
- Return Time an hour +/-. Communication by text, call or email about an hour before return to P&R.

Grubmaster - There will come time a new scout becomes the Grub master (someone responsible to purchase, package and bring the food to campout). Helpful guide and forms can be found under Resources – www.troop570.org, 'Resources for troop members', under Outings

3. Outings to Go On!

Pre-Camporee - This is a scout skill outing for our troop in the spring to prepare our scouts for the district Camporee. Scouts learn many Tenderfoot through First Class requirements. Get the dates of Pre-Camporee from the adult troop leaders.

Camporee - A district-wide campout with troops from our area to challenge patrols on scout skills and scout spirit.

Summer Camp - The troop attends a weeklong summer camp yearly. Summer camp offers each Scout advancement opportunities and outdoor challenges that she will remember for a lifetime. See separate packet with information on this year's summer camp.

- o Talk with the summer camp coordinator as soon as possible as there are limited numbers of slots.
- o Make payments according to the payment schedule. (Parents, let us know if you need to discuss summer camp scholarships for your scout.)
- Make sure you understand and complete the physical exam requirements for summer camp (medical form Part C). This requires an annual doctor visit.

4. Camping Gear

At the first several campouts, Scouts will need good boots, sleeping bag and pad, rain gear and a backpack or duffel bag. Two to three scouts share a tent, and many loaners are available through the Troop. Gear can be expensive. Our goal is to help you prioritize what you need for your first overnight outing and what you'll need over the long haul. We strongly suggest you hold off on purchasing gear until you attended Gear Talk Orientation.

When shopping for gear, consider non-cotton, light weight, compactness and durability. As we will do a lot of backpacking over the next few years it's best to start getting low weight gear instead of heavy gear now and buy another set later. Lite gear tends to be more expensive so prioritize purchases on the important stuff first. The gear Scout needs include:

Daypack - a backpack or sports string bag to carry ten essentials on day hikes, around camp and travel dinners during car rides. Suggest a lightweight 18-22-liter pack with hip belt and sternum strap.

Backpack - Adjustable internal/external frame. Look for well-padded hip belt that supports pack weight, good shoulder strap padding, sternum strap, and easy-access water bottle pockets. Belt should rest on hips. Rain cover optional initially. 55-65 liters capacity. Best to get fitted at the store. A duffel bag is an acceptable alternative for first several car camping trips.

Sleeping Bag - If you're going to spend some money, invest in a decent, light-weight sleeping bag. Look for mummy-shaped bags with a hood and an EN Comfort rating of 20-30-degree Fahrenheit, under 3lbs., and compress to under 8"x12". Younger scouts should not get down-feather-fill bag. Synthetic will keep you warm if bag gets wet. Shell material should be all nylon; water-resistant a plus. Many bags come with a storage bag and a stuff sack. Store bags out of the stuff sack at home to retain loft. Compression stuff sacks are great and necessary for backpacking later.

As light, compact sleeping bags are more expensive, another option is purchasing a car-camping bag now (<$50) and one suitable for backpacking later (>$100). HikerDirect.com sells Alps Mountaineering 30-degree bags at great value; scouts can use it for all car-camping trips and save the more expensive bag for backpacking.

Sleeping Bag Liner - During border camping season in PNW (March-April & October), overnight temperature can fall below 40's. A liner can provide extra 10-degree warmth to the sleeping bag. Alps and Thermarest are two dependable ones. Alternatively, fleece blankets can provide the additional warmth (put it inside the sleeping bag over your body).

Sleeping Pad - Closed cell foam fold-up z-pads are convenient to pack up and highly recommended. More expensive option is backpacking air mattress (Thermarest); best for older scouts who can take care of their gear. Look for pads with greater R-value for better insulation.

Basic Essentials (Ten Essentials) - From simple day hikes to 5-day 50-milers, these are essential items you always carry with you. As things tend to get lost, knives, headlamps, compasses . . . anything small and expensive will be the first to go. We suggest not go overboard and buy expensive versions of anything that's likely to get left, broken or misplaced.

- o Light A decent LED headlamp for $10 with extra AA or AAA batteries.
- o First Aid Kit Start with a simple kit of bandages and ointment in a Ziploc bag.
- o Fire - Matches, lighter, homemade fire starter, tinder; in waterproof container/bag.
- o Pocketknife A simple pocketknife or leather-man tool. Don't worry about getting saws or anything fancy. Scouts will need to earn the Totin' Chip before using a pocketknife on outings
- o Navigation A basic Silva Starter 1-2-3 type compass. Some feature a declination adjustment.
- o Food Carry extra snacks (protein bars, trail mix, etc.)
- Water Bottle Wide-mouth 32oz. Nalgene bottle for cold weather trips and to fit water filter kits.
- Extra Clothes & Rain Protection Breathable, windproof nylon jacket and pants are great. Columbia and REI sell a great basic jacket. Adjustable hood and zip pits are good features.
- o Sun Protection sunglasses, hat, sun-protective clothes, sunscreen, and sunscreen lip balm.

Mess Kit - Simple heavy-duty plastic fork, spoon, bowl, and cup. Entire kit should fit in a gallon-sized Ziploc bag with the bag still able to be closed or a mesh bag. Any plastic bowl or food safe container large enough to hold a meal size serving of stew will do.

Clothes - Remember "Cotton is Rotten". Wool or fleece in winter. Active wear with wicking features works best in summer and year-round as base layers. Dress in layers.

- o Beanie wool, fleece or fleece-lined knit. Heat escapes from the head so it's a must as PNW has cool mornings and nights. Many wear a beanie to sleep.
- O Gloves wool or fleece. Bring extra waterproof gloves for snow camping.
- o Jacket Youth should not use down filled jackets. Light, compressible nylon shell synthetic-filled and regular ski jackets work for cold weather.
- o Insulated Layer Half-zip fleece of various thicknesses (100/200/300) depending on the season. Some fleeces are lighter than others for the same warmth and better for backpacking.
- Base Layers You want the clothes closest to your skin to move the moisture (from sweat, rain) away from your body (to wick) so that your body can properly stay warm. Coolmax, Capilene, Merino Wool are great choices. Costco 30degree heat base layers are good starter piece.
- O Boots Waterproof is best. Minimal seams, deep lug, enclosed tongue to keep dirt out, should flex near toes. Try walking down an incline at the store with two pairs of socks; toes should not touch front of boots.
- Socks Merino wool blend (ex. Smart Wool, Darn Tough, Costco brand) works best for hikes and campouts. Always bring extra socks! Make sure your toes have wiggle room.

Toiletries Kit - Toothbrush, toothpaste, hairbrush, face and body cleansing products, towel and shower shoes in a waterproof bag for car camping.

Tent - 2-4 person, 3-season free-standing tents. Rain-fly needs to cover every side of the tent all the way to the ground. Zipper should have flap that covers it to keep water out. Inside should be breathable nylon or mesh screen. Tub bottom must be waterproof. Continuous aluminum poles are sturdy and easy to set up. Two-person backpacking tents are light and compact, usually less than 4lbs.

Backpacking stove - Remote canister-type white gas or butane stoves. Optional. Consider buying only after attending a few backpacking trips.

APPENDIX D ROADMAP FOR NEW PARENTS

Each scout and their family are important members of our troop. Active involvement of the family is vital to a Scout's advancement and level of interest.

As a new member of Troop 570 you will have the opportunity within the next couple of weeks to attend a series of New Parent Orientations. It is important that you attend. Many of the common questions will be answered there. Read your Scout's handbook to get an idea of what is involved for her to earn each rank through First Class. Help your Scout complete Scout Rank requirement #6.

1. Support Your Scout

- o Encourage your Scout to take responsibility for their participation in the Troop.
- o Help them set and abide by priorities.
- o Allow your Scout to "learn by doing".
- o Give your Scout some room to make mistakes.
- o Encourage your Scout to attend summer camp.
- o Provide information to Scoutmasters regarding problems or concerns you or your Scout may have (schedule conflicts, medical conditions, learning disabilities, medications, etc.).
- o Enjoy the Scouting experience alongside your scout!

2. Troop Needs Your Involvement!

- Come on outings with us! Watch the Scouts in action. (Overnight outings require adult BSA membership.
- o Come to monthly Parent Meetings and get to know the Troop (and us) better.
- Attend and/or support Courts of Honor, fundraisers, and other activities as your time allows.
- o Become a Committee Member and sit on Boards of Review for rank advancement of the Scouts.
- o Sign up to be a counselor for a merit badge or two; it's a rewarding experience.
- o Lend a hand with the indoor and/or outdoor adult work that keeps the Troop running.
- o Take BSA Youth Protection Training online.
- o Take BSA courses offer by District or Council (ex. Program Training Conference).

There are many ways you can help the Troop. Everyone needs to be involved in some way; it is the main reason this troop is active and able to provide dynamic support for the Scouts. If you're not sure what you should or can do, talk with the Committee Chair or Scoutmaster.
